THANK YOU...

In October of 2011, after sending my resume in for the position of Program Director or Christian Education positions to various different churches on the Eastern Coast, I was not sure where we would end up. Moving to the Carolinas was something that Alan and I had prayed about for some time. After my first interview at Virginia Wingard Memorial UMC, I knew that I was extremely interested in this position. The day before we left Florida for the second interview, I received news that I had been offered a position at another church. But, God nudged us to go to SC and interview. After spending the weekend in Columbia, meeting the staff, attending church and going through the last interview...I knew Virginia Wingard MUMC was where God was leading! I knew this was a special church! As we began driving back that Sunday afternoon, my phone rang and Lynn Campbell was on the other end. He offered the position and I accepted. Alan and I both knew in our hearts that this is where the Lord was leading.

January of 2012, I started my journey here at Virginia Wingard MUMC. From even before we started, we felt the warmth and love shared with each of us. You took us into your family and for that we are forever thankful. This church has molded me and shaped me for the ministry that is to come. Each person has their own special place in my heart. God used many of you to push me, teach me, and mentor me for the next step. Through children's ministry, youth ministry, young adults, Sunday School, Daytimers, Bible Studies, Wednesday night dinners, preaching, teaching, etc...I have grown. I would not be who I am today if it was not for each and every one of you! I would not be who I am today if the church had not trusted and embraced me for ministry.

The support, love and prayers that my family and I have felt these past six years will never be forgotten. Virginia Wingard Memorial UMC will always be our church! As someone said to me the other day...you will always be our baby! You were the church that sent me forward into ministry...and this is not good bye! But till we meet again...where our roads will intersect and our lives pass by because we are forever intertwined!

Love Always,
Tammy Grey (and Alan, Kaleb, Ethan and Abby)
